

Dear Faculty,

Living on campus at China Agricultural University is a special time in your life. Hundreds of faculty members have lived together while developing life-long friendships and memories. Our resident community is intended to provide you with a home away from home; a place where you can feel safe and supported while working at ICB.

As a member of our community, we want to make sure you are aware of certain responsibilities. The University and ICB have policies in place to protect the rights of each individual faculty member and promote a positive living-learning environment. You are responsible to know and comply with these policies, as well as report policy violations and inappropriate behavior to a staff member.

Fortunately, the majority of our faculty members already know how to conduct themselves in an appropriate and respectful manner. However, if you have concerns about the behavior of other people, the information below provides you on how to address disruptive behavior and we also have staff who can assist you.

If at any time you have questions or concerns, you should contact ICB Administrative Office (ICB Building Office 113) or call at 62737461/62737794. This is the first point of contact within ICB who can help you with your concerns and questions. You can also contact the program office you are working with and they will direct you to the appropriate person who can assist you.

It is a great time to be at China Agricultural University and we are excited to have you living with us this year. Do not hesitate to contact any of our staff if we can be of any assistance.

Best Regards,

Colleagues and friends from International College Beijing,

China Agricultural University

Process/Checklist

Check In and Re-check In

1. To better service faculty resident, check ins will occur at flexible time basis, for instance, depending upon faculty's flight or train arrival time.
2. An envelope with apartment key, building access card, electricity card and key for electricity box will be provided once resident moves in CAU apartment.
3. Local Residence registration

According to China's Residence Registration Rules and Regulations, resident must register to the local police station in person within 24 hours of arrival. ICB Office 513 will accompany resident for registration to the local police station with the following documents: passport for foreign citizens; Mainland Pass for Taiwan Compatriots; Return Pass for Hong Kong and Macao compatriots.

CAU Apartment Policies

Statement of Responsibility

Information provided below is for the benefit of the community and resident.

Faculty members are responsible for adhering to this information and could be held accountable if individual or group actions are a detriment to the community.

The information contained in this document is the information residents need to know about living in the residence halls. Being well versed in this information will help make the living experience an educational and enriching one as well as provide the resources to be a good community member. Resident is responsible for what happens in their living unit.

Any policy violation may be subject to disciplinary action. Any type of damage, incidental or malicious, will result in restitution of damaged property by the responsible resident.

Community Statement

Resident and staff are a multicultural community of individuals. We are of diverse national, racial, ethnic, and socioeconomic origins. We are unique in that we strive to work and live together. In the process, we learn from one another in an atmosphere of positive contact and mutual respect.

We are committed to behaving and expecting others to behave in ways which demonstrate our beliefs about the respectful treatment of each member of our community.

We believe that we are individually and collectively responsible for our behavior and are fully accountable for our actions. We must take initiative and responsibility for our own learning and awareness of the differences which exist in our community and avoid all actions that negatively impact others. We are committed to these principles which are an integral part of our purpose, values, and daily activities.

ICB adheres to all China Agricultural University policies pertaining to non-discrimination and harassment.
